FALKLANDS EXPOSED PHOTOGRAPHY COMPETITION

Professional Terms & Conditions

Please read the following before submitting your entry on the website. All entrants who upload their images are deemed to have read and accepted these rule and agree to be bound by them.

General

Entries are invited for the Falklands Exposed competition in the following categories:

Wildlife
Landscapes
Heritage
Island Life
Active/Outdoors
A Face from the Place

Each submission must consist of one photo from each category totalling six shots in all. There should be a single submission from each entrant. Multiple submissions will result in disqualification. The submission will be considered a portfolio.

All portfolios must be submitted online, uploaded via the microsite www.falklandislands.com/exposed.

Each image should be loaded up with all the categories completed.

Please ensure that images are 300dpi at A4 size.

This competition is free to enter.

Uploading will cease at midnight GMT 31st March 2010.

Please be aware that due to high volumes of web traffic, there may be times where uploading is not possible, but we would request you try again on a subsequent day within the specified competition period. If there is a prolonged issue with uploading please contact the following: info@reefnet.co.uk

Entry Guidelines

Each entry must reflect the category for which it is entered listed as above.

Acceptable formats are:

Colour or black & white.
Resolution should be sufficient to be printed to high quality (300dpi at A4).

Minor digital adjustments are permitted such as levels, curves, contrast, colour, saturation and sharpening work. However we will only permit images that are a faithful representation of a true moment. Not a creation. Adding or removing subjects from the image submitted is not allowed. Composite and multiple exposures are also not permitted.

Black and white shots may be shot in colour and then de-saturated. A duotone or sepia tone may then be applied.

The URL and website are maintained and run by Falkland Islands Tourist Board (FITB). Any further questions from the T&C contained herein should be addressed to:

Rules and Restrictions

All entrants must have completed all detail fields in order to upload to the site.

Photos that have previously won any photography competition will not be permitted.

Photos must have been taken by the entrant on the Falkland Islands.

The competition is open internationally.

Employees of the competition sponsors and organisers will not be permitted to enter.

Photos must not be older than 24 months on the closing date.

Entries must be fully uploaded at midnight GMT 31st March 2010, otherwise they will not be considered.

FITB reserves the right to remove any images it deems as unsuitable.

FITB and sponsors respect the rights of photographers and does not claim copy right for images submitted. Entrants will retain full copyright for each entry.

In addition your moral rights are respected. Whenever a submitted image is published by FITB or sponsors, the photographer will be credited. Failure to publish a credit due to error or oversight shall not be deemed a breach of this condition.

A selection of photos will be published on the competition website. Regrettably we are not able to publish all submissions.

Entries are made at the photographers own risk.

Entrants are fully responsible for ensuring that all the photographs they submit do infringe the rights of others, and that they will be responsible for meeting the costs of any claims brought against FITB by third parties in respect of images submitted.

By entering this competition, entrants agree that any image submitted may be used by FITB and sponsors solely for marketing and promotional purposes of this contest or future contests and no other purposes. Promotional purposes include judging the competition, display on the competition website and sponsor websites, promotion to publications in connection with the competition and related exhibitions.

Entrants grant FITB and sponsors, a non-exclusive, irrevocable licence in each entry throughout the world in all media for the uses described above for no more than five years following the announcement of the winners.

Should any images be needed for purposes beyond that of promotion and marketing of the competition, entrants will be contacted and given the opportunity to decline or discuss usage terms with parties concerned.

Photos that have been manipulated digitally outside of the specified entry guideline will be disqualified.

Judges details will be published along with the list of winners on www.falklandislands.com/exposed.

Prizes & Awards

Judging will take place in the first two weeks of April 2010.

There will be a single overall winner from the professional category.

The winner will receive:

- £300 worth of Jessops vouchers.

- Footprint's guide to Travel Photography by Steve Davey.

- One year's subscription to Outdoor Photography Magazine.

No alternative prizes are available.

Timing

Closing date: Midnight GMT 31st March 2010.

Entries will be retained and may be displayed in relation to the competition on the FITB website for no more than five years.

Notes

Wildlife should be shot ideally in their natural surroundings, whilst captive wildlife shots will be considered, they will not be regarded as highly as those shot in the wild.

Originality is something that the judges will be looking for as well as technical merit.

Judges are looking for shots that really embody the Falklands, so drastic colour alterations or things that look artificially altered will not be chosen as a winner.
